

State Sen. William Harris, R-Pontiac, enthusiastically greets Sen. David Shapiro, R-Amboy, one of the senators on whom he has lavishly heaped praise. Perhaps the greatest compliment the chief of a legislative body can give to one of the members is a comment he has made about Shapiro. Harris, on more than one occasion, has commented, "Certain people are naturally equipped to work in the legislative process and Sen. Shapiro has natural legislative instincts and has devotion and honesty." (Telegraph Photo)

Shapiro's campaign geared to his record

By ROBERT H. NELLIS

"I have been in the General Assembly since 1968, first as a state representative and later as a senator.

"Before this, I was a member of the City Council of my hometown and at one time a member of the board of education for the district in which I live."

This introduction was given by State Sen. David Shapiro, R-Amboy, a candidate for reelection.

"I have attempted to conduct this campaign to present myself to voters and to let them judge me on past performance," declared the senator.

"We must work to re-establish the people's confidence in public officials," asserted Sen. Shapiro, noting, "It will not be accomplished overnight."

The Amboy senator suggested positive steps have been taken to restore the public's confidence in their representatives by the ethics campaign disclosure legislation.

"More must be done," commented Shapiro. "We need laws limiting the amount of campaign expenditures.

"We need to make it an equal basis for everyone to run for public office," he continued. "I believe Gov. Dan Walker has done just as much as anyone to make the public distrust public officials.

"He campaigned on many issues and I do not mean what appeared in newspapers where he has sometimes claimed he was misquoted, but I have his position papers issued during his campaign for governor in which he called for pension funding and cutting expenses but he has not delivered on any of these promises.

"He vetoed the legislation we sent him to start a program to fully fund the pensions for state employees and teachers and instead of cutting expenditures he has become the highest spending governor in the history of this state," charged the senator.

Shapiro noted this year it has not been easy to comment on state issues because inflation is on the minds of voters.

He said a certain amount can be done by state officials not to add to the inflationary climate, but the real solution to this economic problem rests with the national government.

Other issues which have been raised are ways to reduce real estate taxes and increase aid to local schools.

"We have made rapid improvement in the amount of state money being returned to aid local public schools," noted the senator.

"The resource equalizer formula should bring the state contribution of funds to 50 per cent of the cost of operating local public schools in a few years," observed Shapiro.

"When the state resources increase to more than 50 per cent of the real estate taxes being used for financing local education, I favor to start mandating that dollars sent back be used to reduce the real estate tax rate," he asserted.

He explained how this would work: "Say the schools spend $2 and 80 cents of this is provided by the state and $1.20 by real estate taxes.

"Then the state increases its contribution to $1 in a two-year period and the real estate taxes provide $1 and now the state pays 50 per cent and real estate taxes pay 50 per cent.

"For the third year, the state has enough money to pay $1.10 and the 10-cent increase will be used to reduce the levy of real estate taxes to produce 90 cents.

"One dollar of the $1.10 will go to the education funds and the 10 cents will reduce the dollars needed to be raised by real estate taxes which will begin to reduce the rate."

The senator predicted, "If it is not mandated that state aid returned which is more than 50 per cent of the amount required to be produced by real estate taxes, and is used to reduce local taxes, there will never be a reduction in real estate tax rates.

"The state has tripled the amount returned to aid local schools in the last five years from $400 million to more than $1 billion," reported the senator.

He observed that during the years of this increase in state funds being returned to local schools, real estate tax rates have not been reduced and some have been increased, although 60 to 75 per cent of these taxes go to support local education.

"We must also keep in mind more funding from sources of distant governments will mean some loss of local control of schools and to avoid this some other-than-state sources still will have to be raised for local education," warned the senator.

The veteran legislator is considered one of the General Assembly's experts on financing education since he was vice chairman of the House Education Committee and since moving to the Upper House has been named vice chairman of the Senate Education Committee.

He also served on the Appropriations Committee of the House and now is a member of the Senate Revenue Committee.

Furthermore, he is a member of the General Assembly's School Problems Commission.

So when he talks about state funding of local schools, he does so with authority.

The senator also said the issue of local roads is a factor in this campaign.

"I have tried to make it a well-known fact Gov. Walker vetoed our bills for upgrading local roads in Lee county and then turned around to give Cook County $12½ million for similar types of roads in that region."

Shapiro charged the governor has broken virtually every campaign promise relating to local roads and the supplemental freeway system and, bitterly notes, "Now he is going around opening freeways and calling them great improvements but he did his best to block their construction."

He charged the governor was in Rockford Wednesday to make an announcement about the U.S. 51 multilane freeway project between that city and La Salle-Peru.

"What he will not tell the citizens now is for a long time he tried to push through the project to reconstruct U.S. 51 like the old U.S. 66 which is the type of road construction abandoned many years ago because of the danger of traveling on such roads," lamented the senator.

Another program the state has launched and must keep up, Sen. Shapiro noted is "to provide financing for research and development of technology to remove the sulphur from Illinois coal so it can meet environmental protection standards to be burned in the state.

"Illinois has the largest reserves of coal of any state in the nation but very little can be used now because of EPA regulations.

"If we do not meet this challenge, energy costs will rise for our citizens which means utility bills will continue to increase," predicted Sen. Shapiro.

The Republican legislator predicted, should the GOP lose control of the General Assembly in Tuesday's election, "I do not believe Gov. Walker will have a friendly legislature because he has not reconciled his differences with the Mayor of Chicago.

"Furthermore, I believe some Democrats will be offended with him because he has campaigned against Republicans but has not stressed positive issues for election of Democrats."

Shapiro noted Gov. Walker has called for his defeat but, "he has never told the people of this district why my opponent should be elected, only that I should be turned out."

He suggested this is negative campaigning which he charged is not popular with anyone.

From 1968 to 1972, Shapiro was a state representative and in addition to the committee assignments mentioned above, served on the Highway Traffic Safety Committee and the County and Township Government Committee.

In the Senate, to which he was elected in 1972, he is a member of committees, in addition to those also noted above, Public Health, Welfare and Correction and Pensions and Personnel and is a member of the following commissions, except as pointed out above, Public Employee Pension, of which he is chairman, and the Legislative Research Council.

The senator lives with his family in Amboy, where he is a dentist.

Magruder sticks to story that Mitchell okayed plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Nixon campaign aide Jeb Stuart Magruder stuck by his story today that John N. Mitchell had approved a political intelligence plan that led to the Watergate break-in. But he described it as "never an enthusiastic approval."

Plato Cacheris, attorney for Mitchell, the former U.S. attorney general, questioned Magruder closely about the meeting on March 30, 1972, in Key Biscayne, Fla., at which Magruder — former deputy director of Richard M. Nixon's presidential re-election committee — has said Mitchell approved the political intelligence plan.

Under cross-examination by Cacheris, Magruder, the third prosecution witness in the Watergate cover-up trial, said that at first Mitchell asked: "Couldn't we delay the plan?"

Magruder said after he cited increasing interest in the plan from the White House, "I have a recollection of Mr. Mitchell saying to me, not in an enthusiastic way — it was never an enthusiastic approval — something like, go ahead and give them the $250,000 and let's see what they come up with."

The start of today's session was delayed nearly one hour by a conference in U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica's office attended by prosecution and defense lawyers. None of the participants would say what the meeting concerned.

At the start of his cross-examination of Magruder, Cacheris asked the witness about times he has admitted lying under oath, including when he was a witness at the Watergate break-in trial in January 1973.

"Did you speak words of perjury to the jury?" asked Cacheris.

"Yes, sir," replied Magruder. "John Mitchell didn't speak those words for you, did he?" asked the defense attorney.

"No, sir," Magruder said. Mitchell is one of five former Nixon administration and campaign aides charged with conspiring to thwart the investigation of the Watergate break-in.

JEB STUART MAGRUDER

The other defendants are former White House aides H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman, former assistant Atty. Gen. Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson, one-time lawyer for the Nixon re-election committee.

Defense attorneys indicated Wednesday that their cross-examination of Magruder would take a full day. The next prosecution witness is scheduled to be Robert Reiser, Magruder's assistant at the re-election committee.

Cacheris focused his questioning of Magruder on the former campaign aide's admitted perjury on numerous occasions before he began cooperating with prosecutors in April 1973, and on his use of $6,000 in re-election committee funds.

Cacheris drew from Magruder confirmation that he had told FBI agents April 19, 1973, that prior to the June 17, 1972, break-in "you had not received one dime from the committee to re-elect the president other than salary."

He admitted also telling the agents that after the break-in he had tried for "self preservation" to accumulate as much money as possible from the committee.

Magruder apparently accumulated $6,000 in committee funds for possible use to pay legal fees. But when the committee picked up some of the fees he returned the money.

Cacheris cited several occasions on which Magruder had lied under oath and each time asked him if he had been charged with perjury by the special Watergate prosecutors.

Magruder, who pleaded guilty Aug. 16, 1973, to a single count of conspiracy to obstruct justice and promised to cooperate with the prosecutors, replied that he had not been charged with perjury.

"Is that part of your arrangement with the special Watergate prosecutors?" asked Cacheris.

"Yes, sir," replied Magruder, who currently is serving a 10 months to four years sentence in prison.

Pricing practices of stores to be re-examined

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government plans to examine pricing practices of food stores in an attempt to curb the rapidly rising costs to consumers.

Albert Rees, chairman of the newly created Council on Wage and Price Stability, said Wednesday the agency wants to discourage food stores from marking up the price of items already on the shelves.

Public hearings on the practice will be held sometime next month as part of an investigation into profits and markups for food middlemen. The hearings are the council's ultimate weapon against inflation since it has no enforcement powers.

Some food chains already have announced that once they mark the price of an item, they will not stamp on a new higher price.

The council, created in August, was President Ford's first request of Congress when he took office and declared its intention to be Public Enemy No. 1.

Meanwhile, Ford met with a group of livestock and poultry growers and listened to their recommendations for a variety of solutions to their economic problems. He told them he was very much aware of their problems, but made no commitments in response to their suggestions.

Suggestions from the growers included meat import restrictions, a review of dairy price supports and removal of certain regulations that are believed to hold back production.

A White House report on the meeting said the growers also urged removal or easing of restrictions on U.S. cattle exports to Japan.

The report said Ford told the growers that Japan's ban on meat imports would be a priority for discussion with Japanese leaders when he visits Japan next month. He also pointed out that the pending trade bill gives him authority to lower or raise tariffs and he felt this would help him in the negotiations.

In other economic developments:

—Ford Motor Co. reported third-quarter profits down 51 per cent from a year ago, with earnings in the July-September period falling to $47 million from $95 million a year earlier. Ford President Lee A. Iacocca blamed the decline on soaring costs, coupled with labor disputes and parts shortages.

—Standard Oil of California said profits rose 32 per cent and Ashland Oil said profits rose 14 per cent in the first nine months of 1974, compared with the same period in 1973. Social's earnings were $299 million or $1.77 a share, compared with $226 million or $1.33 a share for last year's third quarter. Ashland posted third-quarter earnings of $27.3 million or $1.05 a share, up from $23.9 million or 95 cents a share last year.

—The second price hike for sugar companies in two weeks was made by Sucrest Corp., which raised the price of sugar sold in 100-pound bags to bakers, confectioners and soda-pop manufacturers to $53.25, up $3.85. Last Friday, Amstar Corp., the nation's biggest sugar refiner, raised its wholesale price of sugar packaged for home use about eight cents per five-pound bag to $2.52 per package.

Impromptu sign painters nabbed by Dixon Police

Two juvenile boys were taken into custody by Dixon police Wednesday night for spray painting at least one stop sign in the city. The two boys were later released to the custody of their parents pending court action.

Chief Earl M. Kelchner, again expressed concern over damage being done to property belonging to Dixon residents. Any person caught in the act of vandalism will be charged according to Chief Kelchner.

Tonight is trick-or-treat night and the Dixon police Department urges all drivers to be extra alert.

Mautino wrong in collecting for housing meetings

Glenn H. Fletcher, executive director of the Bureau County Housing Authority has informed The Telegraph Richard Mautino, Spring Valley, Democratic candidate for state representative from the 37th District, as a commissioner of the housing authority has "authority to charge for attendance and mileage as he made two trips from his residence, one in the daytime and the other at night.

He referred to an article published in The Telegraph on Oct. 17, which reported Mautino was guilty of "double dipping" by charging for more than one meeting per day.

Fletcher suggests the statement should be retracted and Mautino should be given an apology.

Research by The Telegraph, as previously reported, reveals there is an attorney general's opinion which states no member of a County Board may charge the county for attending more than one meeting per day.

Regarding Mautino's membership on the housing authority and charging a per diem fee and mileage for attending those meetings, we turned to the Illinois Revised Statutes which in clear language state, in Chap. 67½ and section 7: "No commissioner shall receive any compensation, whether in form of salary, per diem allowance or otherwise, for or in connection with his services as such commissioner (of a county housing authority)."

This law indicates Fletcher is in error in stating Mautino had the right to charge per diem fees for attending housing authority meetings as a commissioner and Mautino was not entitled to those per diem fees which he received as a commissioner of the Bureau County Housing Authority.

Rochelle police block tracks so cars can pass

ROCHELLE — Police squad cars blocked two railroad tracks on U.S. 51 Wednesday in an effort to stop extensive traffic tie-ups at the grade crossing while the tracks are being repaired.

Police cars blocked the Burlington and Chicago Northwestern tracks to prohibit trains from using the crossing and allowing car traffic to pass.

Several other railroad crossings have been closed for repairs.

The Chicago Northwestern railroad closed High Crossing this morning west on First Ave. by the Del Monte crossing.

Monday the U.S. 51 grade crossing will be closed for three days for railroad work and northbound traffic on U.S. 51 will be detoured from U.S. 51 at First Ave. to Washington St., going as far as Lincoln Ave. and back to U.S. 51. Southbound traffic will be detoured from U.S. 51 at Lincoln Ave. to Ninth St. to the south at First Ave. and back to U.S. 51.

Permission for the detour route was granted to the city of Rochelle by the Dixon office of the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Window soaper leaves regrets

The Halloween season has long been associated with many unusual pranks and tricks by even the most behaved kids in town. Most kids feel it is a tradition to soap the neighbors' windows or T-P a teacher's trees.

One group of Halloween tricksters thought they'd let the doctors at Edwards Clinic know they held nothing against them as they soaped a window at the clinic.

Written on one window at the clinic with soap was "Sorry, Dr. Edwards, this is traditional." The soaper ended the message, "Sincerely."

BOO!!!

... becomes boo hoo

He's too young to really know what Halloween and all its symbols are all about, but Daniel Jude Lyon, five weeks old today, knows he doesn't like the glaring face of the Lyon family jack-o'-lantern. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lyon, Rte. 3, is about to break into tears. For the time being he thinks he'll leave celebration of Halloween to the older kids. (Telegraph Photo)

Results of control

The Senate and House have been controlled most of the last 50 years by the Democratic Party. Many times this was accomplished by false propaganda, lies or vote stealing, and what are the results?

Government printing presses continually shoving out more paper dollars, without gold backing.

The people finally find out these paper dollars are worthless, for it takes more of them to buy your daily needs.

Some of the Republicans have helped to create the inflation, but the Democratic Party is mainly responsible for the 500 billion dollar national debt.

The majority of Americans are conservative. They have been misled many times in voting for socialists who they thought were good legislators. A great deal of this is due to TV and socialistic newspapers. Three-fourths of the papers in America are owned by wealthy socialistic men who do not allow their papers to print the facts of what is going on. Perhaps these publishers are members of the Council of Foreign Relations who are working for a one world government. This can be accomplished only by socializing the United States, then joining up with communistic Russia and China.

How enticing it would be to elect a President, senators and representatives whose philosophy of government was the best armed service in the world to protect your country, judges to protect the citizens by law and punishment for any judge who deviated, a private enterprise banking system under federal law with paper dollars backed by gold with its value determined by the open market, the legislation to annul or cancel out every council agency and bureau that spends any taxpayers' money.

Voice of the people

To the Editor:

I have been instructed by the chairman of the Bureau County Board as their clerk to advise you that on Oct. 17, 1974 the Finance Committee of the Bureau County Board examined 1973 pay vouchers of board member Richard Mautino and meeting dates of the various committees on which Mautino is a member.

The meeting dates of the various committees clearly show that meetings which were listed on the pay voucher as being on the same date were not and that Mautino's pay vouchers were correct.

Mr. Mautino was entitled to all per diem and mileage he claimed during this period.

Very truly yours,
Tom Velon
County Clerk and Recorder

To the Editor:

Next Tuesday we will vote on a rather obscure but important amendment to our state constitution. This "blue ballot" will limit the governor's amendatory veto powers to technical corrections. He will no longer be able to rewrite legislation in any substantive manner.

I believe this to be a worthwhile improvement to our new state constitution. Keep in mind that the governor had no amendatory powers whatsoever until they were granted to him in 1970 by the new constitution.

Having served on the convention committee that drafted this provision, it was our intent that the governor would not be able to rewrite legislation in any sweeping form. We recognized that bills at times are flawed and in need of technical corrections. The amendatory veto allows the governor to make these changes, and, if accepted by a simple majority of the Legislature, to become law. It is no longer necessary to reintroduce a bill and work it through the regular channels to correct a flaw. For this reason the amendatory veto is good.

The problem is that both Governor Ogilvie and now Governor Walker have gone far beyond the intent of our convention and wrote major revisions into various bills. They then must be accepted or rejected by the Legislature without the benefit of committee hearings or a chance to amend the new bill. It is my feeling that this places too much power in the hands of the governor and is an invasion of the legislative process.

I urge a "yes" vote on the blue ballot.

Sincerely,
Harlan Rigney
State Representative
35th District

To the Editor:

We're referring to the letter written by Junior Trulock about our article which was recently written in The Telegraph a few days ago.

Trulock stated in his article, "that we made false accusations against their organization," in which we did not.

If anyone made false accusations it was Trulock, president of the Ten Young Democrats, who stated in his article that there were no candidates names mentioned at the particular meeting.

There was one particular candidate name mentioned which was Don Burke.

His name was mentioned several times at the beginning of the meeting in which the question was asked how to raise money for Burke's fund.

Trulock then suggested ideas like a bake sale or possibly a raffle.

President Trulock also stated during this meeting that we should not worry about ways to raise money for Burke, but try to think of ways to get more people involved because of the small turnout at this meeting.

As we said before it came up how to raise money for Don Burke in which we had no idea his name would be mentioned.

Upon hearing his name, we decided to use false names because we did not want anyone to know that we would attend any organization for Don Burke.

We admit we were wrong in using false names, but as you see we had a good reason.

We admitted we were wrong but will they admit they were wrong in calling the meeting Teen Young Democrats of Lee County whereas it should have been Teen Young Democrats for Don Burke.

Sincerely,
Tom Morrissey

Foiling too nose shoppers

Ever bring home a jar of jelly or baby food from the store only to discover that some other shopper had "inspected" it, maybe even sampled it?

That kind of experience will be a thing of the past thanks to one of those perfectly simple inventions that become so obvious once we see them.

Dairy Cap Corp. of Jamaica, N.Y., has brought out a device it claims makes standard metal or plastic screw-on caps for bottles and jars tamperproof.

The device, called "Protecto-Cap," is a plastic ring which snaps on over the conventional screw cap. Since it is impossible to turn the screw cap with the ring on it (the ring slips), the overcap provides visual proof that the undercap has not been removed. To open a jar or bottle with a screw cap, a consumer must first remove the overcap by stripping away a molded pull tab.

The protecto-cap won't, of course, stop people from opening jars in stores if they want to. But it will prevent others from unwittingly purchasing a product that somebody else has stuck his finger or nose into.

Season of their discontent

By JAY T. BARNETT
BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (NEA)—
The mood of central America at the first post-Watergate election is best described as moody.

The great shock is no longer future, it is past, but Midwesterners will be long forgetting the time when the neverending reports of a collapsing government once emanated from Washington—where the actors really spoke English and really knew Peoria existed.

Moods range from both extremes with a surprising few falling in the middle. Some say it's time to turn the government inside out—all reigning politicians share the blame and should be removed. Some say Watergate confirms lifelong suspicions, and they have now lost what faith they had in the system's ability to cure itself. And some say their mood changes from one of these extremes to the other as fast as days change.

The farmer suffered through a season as unparalleled as the happenings in Washington. With politicians and experts promising highest prices for record efforts, he opened his lands like never before. But spring rains, summer drought and fall frost have made him think in terms of patterns—not particulars.

"I always remember seasons," said one man of the dirt, "and I'll always remember Watergate when I tell my grandkids, because that was the worst season I ever seen."

Some see Watergate as optimistically as they can—a small sore removed from a healthy body. Others see Watergate as the first external sign of a long-festering inside cancer. But despite their view, it still sickens them.

And the politician trying to push his message across is finding the reception unclear. Democrats, who just three months before the election were itching to hit the campaign trail, have found that people have heard enough. And they've found that people are well aware that the unbiased nature of fate picked the loyal opposition to hold up as an example, that the horse was bound to bolt, caring little which party held the reins.

Republicans find themselves joylessly spending less time than expected explaining Watergate and painfully spending more time answering detailed questions and comments on the economy. Incumbents—be they Republican or Democrat—find themselves running scared.

All feel an inner swelling of sentiment in the populace, but how—or if—that swelling manifests itself on election day is causing more than the normal share of sleepless nights.

It once played very well indeed in Peoria, but reviews now range from mixed to malicious. Never before has a play closed like this in the middle of an act, and the number of patrons who'll demand their money back will be the final judgment.

Looking for another HST

By PATRICIA L. EDMONDS
INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (NEA)— In 1955, Harry S. Truman asserted, "There is enough in the world for everyone to have plenty to live on happily." Nearly 20 years later, the people of the 33rd President's native Jackson County long for such assurance.

Of the Jackson Countians questioned, 90 per cent reported that their main concern now is the economy, and what can be done to assure "enough for everyone." "Prices have to come down" and "We can't wait any longer to stop inflation" are common denominators, but opinions vary as to how the economy should be healed, and at whose expense.

President Ford's proposal to tax yearly incomes of $7,500 or more per single person and $15,000 or more per family is not popular with Jackson Countians. Some opponents of the plan feel that the tax should be preceded by a revision of government spending: "They should re-evaluate how they're spending our money before they ask us for more of it." Others maintain that the tax is "starting too low," and that the middle income group "has been taxed to death already." "There's welfare for the poor, and loopholes for the rich, but nothing for us in the middle," one woman lamented.

Only days after the surtax was proposed, residents had plenty of uses for its revenue. They frequently suggested public education, local government, the national debt, senior citizens' benefits and mass transit development as worthy recipients.

As little as they like the income surtax, Jackson Countians could offer no heal-alls of their own for the economy. Stop-gap suggestions ranged from stiffening controls on welfare and bringing home America's foreign aid dollars to revamping the tax system and imposing a five per cent gasoline tax. The majority, however, were against levying such a tax, and applauded Ford's decision not to impose the surtax yet.

Of the few residents not primarily concerned with the economy, most said they were "still worried" about Watergate, its causes and effects. Unlike the majority who wanted to "put it all behind us," these few were not satisfied with what they considered sketchy disclosures of "what really happened," and were disgusted with Ford's pardon of Nixon: "How can you pardon someone when you don't even know what for?"

His sudden pardon was the single strike against Ford, most residents felt; otherwise, they were satisfied with Ford, and with what he had done so far. They spoke approvingly of his "straightforwardness," "candor" and "down-home talk—if it's not just talk"; but most would not pledge to support him in 1976: "We'll have to see who else comes along."

Any candidate who "comes along" this November or two years from now will face a demanding constituency here. Jackson County voters want leaders with new ideas, good economic heads and a concern for "the common man"; the candidate they support must be "totally interested in getting this country going again."

"I think all we want is somebody honest—if we can find anyone," mused one resident. "Maybe another Harry Truman..."

Career-minded women might well consider the field of chemistry. For the first time, reports Chemical & Engineering News, female graduates with a B.S. degree in chemistry or chemical engineering are receiving higher starting salaries than male graduates.

The publication predicts that women's median starting salary in 1974 will climb to 105 per cent that of men. About a decade ago, it was only 86 per cent that of men.

The report is based on responses to the American Chemical Society's annual Starting Salary Survey of new graduates.

However, years of unequal employment practices toward women and minority chemists are still reflected in statistics from society members.

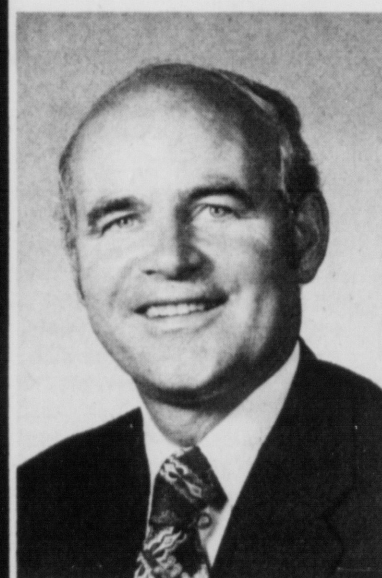

For example, women and minority chemists still earn less than men with comparable experience. They had a higher unemployment rate in 1974 than the figure for all chemists. They hold fewer managerial positions. And in 1973, two-thirds of the U.S. chemistry departments offering Ph.D. degrees had no women on their faculties.

On the other hand, one newly graduated chemical engineer, a female American Indian, was swamped with 12 job offers.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Much can be accomplished today if you limit your associations to those with whom you share a kinship of progressive ideas.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
Take the time to really shop around if you're in need of having special services performed for you. The savings will be considerable.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Don't be hesitant about assuming a leadership role now among your immediate circle of friends. You're the one who can get things moving.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
Open up a little more. Get what's bothering you off your chest. Do it with one you feel free to discuss your innermost secrets.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
Information of value will be passed on to you through an acquaintance. It won't mean too much until later, when you'll see how the pieces fit.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
This should be a profitable day for you, business and career-wise if you rivet your attention on these areas. Analyze partially visible advantages.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
Don't put off doing something that needs doing now, even though it may be a bit distasteful. Surprisingly, it will go rather well.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
Do a little more detective work in a situation that you have your suspicions about. Something can be uncovered now.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
You're in a better position to bargain today than you will be tomorrow. Don't dilly-dally about getting arrangements tied down.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Conditions are favorable now for serving your ambitions. Be persistent and deliberate in what you go after.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)
You tend to view things more philosophically now. This will work to your advantage. It should be a pleasant day.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
A challenge will be thrown at you by an antagonist who questions a position you've taken. Stand firm and you'll win.

Nov. 1, 1974

Take a hard look at joint venture-type propositions that come your way this year. One will have considerable value not apparent at first glance.

Army prepares to fight birds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has a new enemy with 14 million airborne troops — a noisy horde of blackbirds roosting in a pine grove.

The birds are flocking to the pine forests of Ft. Campbell, Ky., and the Milan Army Ammunitions Plant in Tennessee as they have in previous autumns, but this year the Army is preparing a fight to the finish.

A Pentagon spokesman said Tuesday the Army plans to spray the birds with a detergent that will remove the natural oil from their feathers. The oil protects the birds from inclement weather, and when the temperature drops below 45 degrees the birds will die from the cold.

The Environmental Defense Fund says there are more humane ways of handling the problem, but does not dispute the need to get rid of the estimated 14 million blackbirds.

Maureen Hinkle, a pesticides expert at the environmental organization, suggested that the Army set up a large funnel near the resting grounds with a light at the end of the funnel. If the light is turned on in the middle of the night, the birds will fly directly into it, killing themselves instantaneously as they strike the lens, she said.

The birds, mostly starlings, became a problem several years ago when pine groves at Ft. Campbell and at the ammunitions plant matured to a point where they provided ideal roosting grounds.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE B-682: Edna T., aged 20, is a college senior.

"Dr. Crane," she began, we use your textbook in our class in Applied Psychology.

"And I notice therein that you say 'only' children are greater marriage risks than are those who grew up with several brothers and sisters.

"Well, I have been dating two college boys who are quite congenial with my personality.

"But one comes from a big family while the other is an 'only' child.

"At this stage, I think I am equally fond of them.

"But if I stopped going with one, I think I'd soon fall in love with the other, so what should I do?"

Stall for Time

In this dilemma, I'd advise Edna to stall for a year or so until she can obtain a job and learn more about the rigors of earning a good pay check, and budgeting her money.

Maybe, by the time she is 21 or 22, she will find that her personality harmonizes better with one boy than with the other.

Or a third Romeo may then enter the picture.

Your readers can see the greater obstacle confronted when you marry an "only" child.

For it has received 100 per cent of the parental attention ever since birth.

Because a happy marriage should be a 50-50 affair, when this "only" child then takes a wife, he will obtain but 50 per cent of the attention.

Which means he drops from his former 100 per cent monopoly of adult attention in the home to but 50 per cent.

This is vaguely disturbing and often irritating, for people can become "addicts" of the family spotlight, just as narcotic users can become addicts of drugs.

If you cut down the daily dope requirements of a confirmed morphine addict to but 50 per cent of his usual intake, he becomes restless and irritable.

Now consider Edna's other suitor, who comes from a family of 4 children.

If his parents divided their love and attention equally among all 4 offspring, then he received 25 per cent.

If he should then marry Edna and enter upon a 50-50 marital division of attention, he would actually gain a double daily dose of affection and the family spotlight.

For he'd now rise from his former childhood 25 per cent to 50 per cent.

And notice, too, what would happen when the first baby arrives.

The "only" suitor, already irritable at dropping from his earlier 100 per cent spotlighting to but 50 per cent, then would find that his new baby would rob him of at least half of that 50 per cent, thus leaving him at best but 25 per cent.

This drop from his original 100 per cent to 25 per cent would further shock his selfish ego.

It even would disturb the ego of the other man who received only 25 per cent of the parental attention as a child, but his reduction from the 50 per cent he gained by his marriage, would now drop him down only to that original 25 per cent, even if the new baby takes away half of the 50 per cent attention his wife showered upon him.

So use your head more than your heart when you pick a mate!

Jones-Bushman nuptial ceremony

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD A. BUSHMAN

St. Patrick's Catholic Church was the setting for the Sept. 28 marriage of Miss Janet Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Jones Sr., to Edward A. Bushman, son of Mrs. Francis Bushman and the late Mr. Bushman.

The wedding was performed at 2 p.m. by the Rev. William B. Schuessler, and Crawford Thomas provided organ accompaniment for vocal selections by James Wiltz.

White satin bows were attached to the church pews, and the altar held arrangements of white and orange gladioli and white carnations.

Bride's Attire

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white silk organza and Nottingham lace. The gown's empire bodice featured a high neckline of lace, shepherd sleeves and a tucked yoke edged with ruffled lace and centered by miniature bridal buttons. Her dirndl skirt was accented by three rows of lace and a lace-trimmed cathedral train, and her chapel-length mantilla of silk illusion and lace fell from a maline pill-box headpiece. The diamond necklace she wore was a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a circular bouquet of white carnations, Woburn Abbey roses and baby's breath tied with white satin ribbons.

The maid of honor, Miss Joyce Jones sister of the bride, wore a full-length gown of orange and white floral crepe designed with a V-shaped ruffled neckline and a hemline ruffle, and identically-styled gowns of green and white floral crepe were worn by the attendants, Miss Lori Simon, Princeton; Mrs. Andrew Taylor and the bride's sister, Miss Patricia Jones. Their white picture hats were trimmed with ribbons matching their gowns, and each one carried a wicker parasol holding a bouquet of orange Elegance carnations, white Iceberg pompons and baby's breath.

The ceremonial flower girl, Miss Becky Jones, wore a long frock of orange and white floral crepe with a coronet of orange pompons, and she also carried a wicker parasol filled with orange carnations, white pompons and baby's breath.

David Green, Chicago, attended the bridegroom as best man, and serving as groomsmen were John Bushman, Glendale Heights, and James Bushman, brothers of the bridegroom, and the bride's brother, Glenn H. Jones Jr. Ushers for the ceremony were Jerry Gehant, Amboy, and Larry Crawford, brothers-in-law of Mr. Bushman; Steven Manon and Thomas Jones, and the rings were carried on a white satin pillow by Michael Bushman, nephew of the bridegroom.

The service was followed by a reception in St. Mary's School when guests were registered by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Larry Crawford.

sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. John Bushman, Glendale Heights, the bridegroom's sister-in-law. Coffee and punch were poured by Mrs. Michael Ward, Sterling; Mrs. Dennis Burgess and Miss Roberta Jones, and in charge of the gift table were Mrs. Lyle Harden and Miss Christine Dempsey.

Live in Dixon

Since their return from a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and the eastern states, the newlyweds have been residing in Dixon. The bride graduated in 1972 from Dixon High School, and is presently employed in the data processing department at KSB Hospital. Her husband attended Sauk Valley College following his 1972 graduation from Newman Central Catholic High School, Sterling, and he is employed as assistant manager of the Coast-to-Coast Store in Dixon.

The bridegroom's mother hosted a buffet dinner in her home following the wedding rehearsal when she was assisted by the bridegroom's sisters and sisters-in-law, and pre-nuptial parties honoring the bride included a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Jones and Miss Joyce Jones.

Mrs. Harden and Mrs. Mary Willwerth were co-hostesses for a linen shower, and a miscellaneous shower was arranged by Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. James Bushman.

Dear Ann
by Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I will skip over the details and pose two direct questions. One: How important is sex in marriage? Two: Is it possible to be in love with someone (such as a husband) without having the desire to be physically close to that person—I mean there is no biological urge whatever to have him touch me.

Please, Ann, give no hint as to where this letter came from I can't take the chance of being identified by anyone.—Totally Confused

Dear Totally: Sorry, but I need to know a great deal more than you've told me before I can give you an answer to your first question. Here are some examples of the missing links: How old are you? How old is your husband? Is this your first marriage? Why did you marry him? How much sexual experience have you had? Is your husband interested in sex? Is there any other man in your life—like perhaps someone who really turns you on? If not, do you feel you are being cheated out of something important—or does your marriage have other compensating factors?

Two: There is no blanket answer to that question. It is possible to have a good marriage with very little sex if both parties have low sex drives but they have compensating elements, such as respect, admiration, similar interests, and sometimes—but not always—children they enjoy.

(Married sex troubles arise when a "Secretariat" is hitched up to a candidate for the glue factory.)

Dear Ann Landers: Please say a word to the mothers of America who are keeping their bachelor sons tied to their apron strings. Don't these women realize they are depriving their sons of a normal, natural life?

I know at least five unmarried men in this town who are attractive, bright and successful. They rarely, if ever, ask a woman for a date. Why? Because they spend most of their evenings entertaining their mothers.

What are these fellows going to do when their mothers die? Visit the cemetery every night?

Please print my letter for every selfish, domineering mother in the world to read. They'll recognize themselves. Moreover, they need to know that—Someone Is Watching

Dear Watching: Marriage is not for everyone. Some of the

The honorees are inviting friends and relatives to attend the observance of their anniversary, and they request that gifts be omitted.

Meeting for Methodist Ruth Circle

Mrs. Lyle Bellows recently entertained 14 members of the First United Methodist Church Ruth Circle when Mrs. David Wigginton, circle chairman, presided.

Members volunteered to work at the annual UMW bazaar and luncheon planned for Nov. 23 in the church and at the Eurith Leydig Memorial Center during November.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

As one of our homespun philosophers said, "There's more than one way to skin a cat or develop a squeeze."

South went right up with dummy's ace of trumps and took stock. If he could just keep leading from his own hand he could ruff out three spades and score seven trumps plus five side-suit cards. However, he doubted if his opponents would let him do that. Could he ruff two spades?

Yes, he could provided he did not run into a 4-1 trump break. So South proceeded to lead a spade to his ace; ruff a spade and play ace and another diamond.

East won and led a second trump. When West followed, South breathed a sigh of relief. He held the trick in his own hand; ruffed a spade with dummy's last trump; led and ruffed a diamond from dummy; cashed his last trump and smiled happily at the world in general.

East had been forced to throw a spade on the third diamond. Obviously the last trump was going to squeeze him in spades and clubs. It did and the slam came home.

What were the other ways to make the slam? Clubs might break 3-3 or with slightly different distribution, West could have been squeezed in the major suits. 31

Class dinner

FRANKLIN GROVE — Members of the Care and Share Class of the Church of the Brethren met for a scramble dinner and business session Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Haenitsch.

The class presented a floral centerpiece to Mr. and Mrs. Haenitsch as a gift for their new home, and assisting the hosts were the R. K. Callisons.

Miss Hammil, Robert Inman exchange vows in Steward

STEWART — A floor-length gown of white delustered satin was worn by Miss Barbara Hammil, daughter of the John Hammils, Steward, when she became the bride of Robert Jack Inman, son of Robert F. Inman Jr., Belvidere, at 8 p.m. Sept. 28 in the United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Ernest Francis, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman, and vocal selections by Mrs. Robert Arne and Robert Mittan were accompanied by Mrs. Jack Connally, Rochelle, organist, and Miss Becky Francis, pianist.

Altar Decorations

Arrangements of variegated foliage and lighted candles decorated the church altar which was flanked by bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and seven-branched candelabra entwined with foliage and satin ribbons. Hurricane candelabra trimmed with garlands and ribbon were attached to the sanctuary pews.

The bride's gown, trimmed with Alencon lace, was fashioned with an A-line skirt featuring a cathedral train and a hemline insertion of lace. Her empire bodice was accented by a mandarin collar, a scalloped yoke and bishop sleeves ending in wide lace cuffs, and her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a contoured lace headpiece. The cascading bouquet she carried combined Woburn Abbey roses, white pompons, Elegance carnations, baby's breath, ivy and oak leaves.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents, and she was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Hammil, Franklin Grove, maid of honor, and Mrs. Charles Hammil, South Wayne, Wis., bridesmatron. They were attired in identical full-length gowns of floral organza over orange polyester candelabra holding orange candles and clustered with yellow and orange carnations, bronze pompons, oak leaves and orange velvet ribbon.

Charles Hammil, South Wayne, served the bridegroom as best man; Larry Blocher, Franklin Grove, was groomsmen, and wedding guests were ushered by Gerald Lawson and Gary Richardson, Rochelle.

Reception

The church fellowship hall was the setting for a reception

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT J. INMAN

following the ceremony when 180 guests were registered by Miss Annette Truckenbrod, Rochelle. The bride's table held a centerpiece of candles and assorted fall flowers in white orange and yellow, and a tiered wedding cake supported by a fountain and encircled at the base by a foliage wreath, was served by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Jett, Duncanville, Tex., and Mrs. Gerald Lawson, Rochelle, and presiding at the punch bowl and coffee service were Mrs. Ronald Sassaman, Miss Barbara Bybee and Miss Terry Fenwick, Rochelle. In charge of the gift table were Miss Michelle Kubale and Mrs. Richard Brown. Each assistant wore a corsage of white pompons and oak leaves.

The new Mrs. Inman, a graduate of Rochelle Township High School, is an employee of the Kroger Company in Rochelle, and Mr. Inman, a graduate of Belvidere High School, is employed by the Colonial Bakery, Rockford.

Since their wedding trip to Texas and Arizona, the newlyweds have been residing in the Imperial House Apartments, Rochelle.

Women's Clubs meet for luncheon in Dixon church

A fall luncheon for the Lee County Women's Clubs was held recently in the Dixon Church of the Brethren. The event was hosted by members of the Dixon Junior Women's Club, and the club president, Mrs. Daryl Stienstra, welcomed 28 members and guests.

The luncheon, served by members of the church Women's Fellowship, preceded a business meeting conducted by the county president, Mrs. Duane Butterbaugh, Dixon, who led the pledge of allegiance to the American flag and read an article entitled "The Story Our Shoes Tell Us."

Business included a decision to continue as a social club entitled Lee County Women's Clubs since the State Federation no longer recognizes county clubs as being federated.

Members voted to forward a contribution of $15 to Winning Wheels Inc., and to continue the monthly birthday parties at the Lee County Nursing Home.

Mrs. Clarence Hodge, Franklin Grove, was appointed to serve as chairman of the nominating committee, and she will be assisted by Mrs. Wallace Clover, Ashton, and Mrs. George Kaleel, Amboy. Special prizes were awarded by Mrs. Leroy Englehart, Compton, to Mrs. William Herbst, Franklin Grove, and Mrs. Stanley Hann, president of the Franklin Grove Women's Club, who presented a prize for having the largest number of clubwomen present.

Mrs. Butterbaugh announced that autumn decorations centering the luncheon tables were for sale, and proceeds would be donated to Winning Wheels Inc.

Mrs. John Thomas, president of the Dixon Woman's Club, invited the clubwomen to a tea scheduled for 1:30 p.m. March 25 in Dixon, and the county program chairman, Mrs. David Shapiro, Amboy, introduced Judge Thomas Hornsby, Dixon, who spoke on the "Volunteers in the Lee County Probation Program." The program trains volunteers to work with young persons in trouble and help with the problems that cause them to rebel against society.

Judge Hornsby also described various organizations and programs available in the county to assist young people, and he expressed the wish that more persons will become interested in helping youth of the community.

Polly's Pointers

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — I have two wine decanters. One is clear but the other is very cloudy. I have tried using ammonia, sand and alcohol but none had any effect on the cloudy decanter. I hope some reader can tell me how to get rid of this. Both decanters have very long narrow necks. It is impossible to get any kind of brush or cloth inside. — Elizabeth.

DEAR POLLY — I shop in several different supermarkets. My Pet Peeve is that the "directory" signs designating the aisles where different products are sold are situated halfway down the aisle and so high up it is difficult to read them looking up at a light. I do not see why these signs could not be positioned near the end of the aisle and more nearly at eye level. — J. R. G.

DEAR POLLY — Maralee should be able to remove all that greasy grime from her hanging lamp chains with kerosene. Just dip a cloth in the kerosene and wring it out. I have never seen it fail with a bit of rubbing. One part kerosene and two parts water also will really make windows bright. — IVA.

GIRLS: Be very careful

while working with kerosene. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — Wornout nylon hose are great for cleaning rings out of the bathtub. Cut off the foot, shred the rest of the stocking and then stuff it into the foot and tie a knot at the end. Nylon must be slightly abrasive as it is great for this and for cleaning other appliances around the house, even washing the car. Try washing dishes with it, too. The nylon rinses out clear and does not sour. — MRS. C. W.

DEAR POLLY — In these ecology-conscious days I answer simple business letters at home by replying on the back of the letter and am saved both time and money. — IRENE.

Award winning project smells, say officials

By T. LEE HUGHES
Associated Press Writer
LEWISTOWN, Ill. (AP) —
The American Society of Civil Engineers this year gave its top engineering award to a sewage sludge recycling project in Fulton County, but now state officials are saying the project smells.

And they're planning a conference of key environmental experts next month to see what can be done about it.

For months some county residents have been complaining about odors from the sludge recycling project, operated by the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago (MSD).
A number of organizations filed a $1 million suit last March seeking to halt the project.

Now the state Environmental Protection Agency says it has studied odor complaints from May through August and concluded that there's good reason for them.

"The analysis basically determined that the complaints were valid and that the sludge operation for spraying and storage constitutes a nuisance," said John McGuire, the governor's assistant for environmental affairs, in a telephone interview

Tuesday.

Basically, the MSD operation involves applying a processed sludge to abandoned strip mine land in an effort to enrich the soil.

Dr. Richard H. Briceland, EPA director, said his agency's study compared complaints with wind direction and recycling activities to see which complaints were credible. Between 80 and 90 per cent were, he said.

"We believe there is justification at this point for registering a valid nuisance violation," Briceland said. "Whenever this happens we try to sit down with the people involved and have what we call a compliance conference."

McGuire said the conference would try to hammer out solutions to the problem, and would involve representatives of the federal EPA, Fulton County Board and Health Board, the MSD and county residents.

The EPA has suggested that the sanitary district stop spraying the sludge and inject it into the soil instead, Briceland said.

The EPA also proposed the MSD end use of its sludge storage lagoons within two years and take immediate steps to control their smell.

State officials stressed that these were only suggestions and the EPA was open to workable alternatives. James Hal-derson, an MSD agricultural engineer, said that if the EPA plan were followed the project would have to be drastically revamped.

So far recycled sludge from the Chicago area has been spread on about 1,000 acres in Fulton County. The MSD owns

9,500 other acres, is buying 5,000 more and all of this is expected to be spread with the sludge.

The Doctor Says:

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — What are we supposed to believe any more? For several years I have diligently watched my intake of certain foods. Except for foods such as cakes, cookies and pancakes, I have specifically avoided eggs, cheese, butter, and whole milk.

Now, I read in the attached newspaper article that these are some of the very foods that would help to control cholesterol because of the lecithin in the egg yolks. What gives? What is lecithin?

Is it any wonder that the public is all mixed up where diets are concerned? One doctor advises to "count calories." Another says to "avoid carbohydrates." Another counsels "drinking eight glasses of water a day." Dr. Lamb, what are we supposed to believe any more?

DEAR READER — There are many commercial interests in the health field. There are also a lot of completely unqualified people and plain quacks pouring out a steady stream of misinformation to the public. I agree the public has ample reason to be confused.

The best I can tell you is to look to the person's qualifications or the qualifications of the source he quotes. As a case in point, the article advising lecithin you sent is based on ignorance. It is true, however, that cakes and cookies can be a source of fat and cholesterol. Years ago it was shown that you could inject lecithin into the bloodstream and it helped to clear the fats and cholesterol in the blood. Note that it was injected into the blood, not swallowed.

In fact, our own body manufactures lecithin to put into the bloodstream for these purposes. It is manufactured from different basic food blocks.

Now that is far different from swallowing things. Lecithin that is swallowed, not injected into the bloodstream, is digested and never absorbed into the body, let alone into the bloodstream as lecithin. Meanwhile, untold numbers of people read the kind of thing you sent me and waste their money on pills that could be better spent on good, wholesome food.

The limitation of fat, cholesterol, and calories to avoid obesity is the recommendation of a broad group of well-recognized scientists, including physicians and nutritionists. Their recommendations should be considered as from the best available source, as opposed to some untrained individual's unscientific opinion.

We have no method to control the kind of material printed and available to the public, as we do in the control of products, such as foods and drugs. That is the problem. Within the medical profession and associated disciplines, we have scientific journals. To publish something in these the article must be reviewed by a competent editorial board.

For this reason you will not read in these journals on nutrition or biochemistry or circulation any statement like you sent to me. The board will recognize at once the errors in such statements, and it will be rejected. Unfortunately, we have no way of doing this outside our scientific journals. To do so would involve a form of censorship that might be worse.

You may be interested to know that those people who have popularized no carbohydrates or eight glasses of water a day, or swallowing lecithin pills have never been able to do work of sufficient quality to be suitable for publication on a scientific journal.

"LOSING INTEREST IN THE COUNTY TREASURER'S OFFICE?"

A minimum of $250,000 interest money has been lost in the past two Republican Administrations in the Treasurer's Office because of a poor investment program!

For Example — the 1973 investment program, outlined below, is typical of the Investment Program since 1966...

Cash Balance Nov. 30, 1973 $1,831,000	Average Balance In Non-Interest Bearing Checking Account $1,330,000	Money Invested In Interest Bearing Time Certificates $500,000
--	---	---

The cash needs of the county to cover 45 days operating expense are $330,000. This means we have $1,000,000 lying idle in NON-INTEREST BEARING checking accounts that could be earning a minimum of 6% interest or $60,000!

People in the news

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger's trip here was to inspect oil fields and deliver a speech on national defense. It also was for the birds.

After the oil field tour in 30-below zero temperatures, and before his speech here, Schlesinger and two of his eight children went on a bird-watching trek with a group of university students.

State Rep. Clem Tillion pointed out several different kinds of birds that live in Halibut Cove, which is in his home district.

NEW YORK (AP) — Martha Mitchell still figures she can't get by comfortably on the $1,000-a-week temporary alimony she was awarded as a prelude to her separation suit against former U.S. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell. Tuesday she asked to renew her original claim for $3,000-a-week.

Manhattan Supreme Court Justice Manuel Gomez agreed to hear a re-argument of her claim later this week. He originally pared down Mrs. Mitchell's $3,000 figure to $1,000.

Mitchell currently is on trial in Washington in connection with the Watergate cover-up.

LONDON (AP) — Prince Charles, the 25-year-old heir to the British throne, says he is "slightly irritated" by the publicity given his reported romances.

He said Tuesday he accepted the situation because he is accustomed to media treatment, but added: "It can make things very difficult" for a girlfriend.

Prince Charles, regarded as Europe's most eligible bachelor, said in a television interview, "It's got nothing to do with anybody else at the moment who I particularly want to marry or anything like that."

NEW YORK (AP) — John D. Rockefeller IV has disclosed he didn't exactly live in the lap of luxury as a university undergraduate.

While studying at the International Christian University in Tokyo from 1957 to 1960, he said, "my food allowance was $11 a month and I paid $2.75 a month rent in a rooming house."

Rockefeller became fluent in Japanese, but admitted his linguistic ability suffered while he lives now.

"There really aren't very many Japanese in West Virginia," he told a gathering of alumni and supporters here Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Soprano Beverly Sills will appear here as scheduled Nov. 20, despite her surgery last week for pelvic cancer, a spokesman for the San Francisco Opera says.

"She feels great," the spokesman said Tuesday. "She's been singing in the hospital and itching to get out."

Kishwaukee to present 'Teahouse of August Moon'

MALTA — Kishwaukee College's drama department will present the warm and humorous production of "Teahouse of the August Moon," Nov. 7-10.

The 2 1/2-hour production will be presented at the college's Barn Theatre, Ill. 38 and Malta Road, starting at 8 p.m. Nov. 7 through 9. The Nov. 10 performance will begin at 2:30 p.m.

The play is a comedy tracing the American occupation of the island of Okinawa following World War II. It matches the bureaucracy and logic of the American occupation army with the more than equal logic of the Okinawan people.

The "democratization" of the simple natives leads to gentle conflict with the desires of the local inhabitants and the ul-mate "nativization" of the officer sent to organize and indoctrinate the natives. The play is a delightful farce spoofing the inevitable conflicts between strict military standard operating procedures and the simple, yet wise natives of Okinawa.

John Patrick wrote the play from a novel written by Vern Snider. It was first presented on Broadway in 1953.

Included in the cast of the Kishwaukee College production is Paula Faulkner of Rochelle as Miss Higgs Jiggs.

Dr. Tyrone Turning of Rochelle is in charge of the production.

Tickets for the play will be sold at the door and are $1 for general admission and 50 cents for students.

Jamie Weaver, 9 years old and blind, March of Dimes poster child, has her picture taken with Lee County Chapter delegates attending a March of Dimes convention in Chicago. At Jamie's right is Cindy Nicklaus and at her left, Penny Switzer, youth March of Dimes leaders in Dixon High School. Behind them is Miss Florence Cook, Steward, president of the Lee County Chapter.

Eight representatives of the local chapter of the National Foundation for Birth Defects, March of Dimes, were at the 600-delegate convention Oct. 27 to 29 which served the needs of leaders and workers in Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Merrick, the Rev. and Mrs. LeRoy F. Weihe, Mrs. Hazel Durin, Scarborough, and the three delegates pictured above, represented the local chapter.

The convention underscored the importance of preventing birth defects. Prevention requires research, personnel, and application of findings to high-risk pregnancy patients in properly equipped clinics and hospitals. Research requires scientists, laboratories, specializing doctors, and highly trained nurses. Research is an expensive process. However, prevention of birth defects is less costly than providing institutional care for a lifetime. The goal of the National Foundation is to provide a normal way of life for everyone by eliminating defects from the beginning, eliminating the need for institutional care, and converting misery into happiness.

A medical center like the one in Denver serves several surrounding states, the Denver center serving seven mountain and plains states.

These regional medical centers are among the many research projects that benefit from the research grants distributed by the National Foundation out of the contributions coming from local community March of Dimes donors throughout the 50 states.

Shapiro lists more campaign expenditures

AMBOY—State Senator David C. Shapiro (R-Amboy) today released a list of his campaign contributions and expenditures through Oct. 27.

Sen. Shapiro previously disclosed a list of his campaign contributions and expenses prior to Oct. 1, and this disclosure brings the list up to date.

"At the time I made my first disclosure," Shapiro stated, "I announced my intention to accept contributions only from individuals. In order to make this policy work, however, I had to have the help of many people throughout the district. I am happy to say the response has been tremendous, and I wish to thank all those who have personally contributed their own time and money to this campaign."

"One of the principal sources of campaign contributions was a fund-raiser held earlier this month," Shapiro said. "So far we have received $2,935 from this event and we estimate there is still another $1,000-$1,500 left to be collected from those who sold tickets." Shapiro reported that for the fund raiser there was one $100 donation; three $70 donations; five $50 donations; four $40 donations; three $30 donations; six $25 donations; fifty $20 donations; one $15 donation; forty-two $10 donations; and two $5 donations.

In addition to the fund raiser, Senator Shapiro stated he had received $485 in contributions listed in his first disclosure plus $12,000 in personal loans.

"I also received some help from the DeKalb County Republican Central Committee and the Republican Senate Campaign Fund which did not go through my account but were spent on my behalf," Shapiro added. "The DeKalb County Committee purchased $62.50 in ads on WLBK radio in DeKalb and the Republican Senate Campaign Fund paid $3,500.11 to George Young and Associates for public relations, radio and brochure work, and printing."

Expenditures since Oct. 1 were listed as follows: Lee County Central Committee, $150; Whiteside County Central Committee, $150; Bureau County Central Committee, $150; Henry County Central Committee, $100; Postmaster, $727.31; Attention, Inc., $326.84; Postmaster, $1,236; WKEI, $210; WSDR, $525; Print Shop, Dixon, $134.20; WJVM, $250; WZOE, $250; WIXN, $35; DeKalb County Central Committee, $100; WLBK, $187.50; Sir Speedy, Spfld., $400; Postmaster, $335.14; Postmaster, $50; Bureau County Republican, $283.60; Spring Valley Gazette, $260.55; Illinois Valley Shopper, $39.80; Emerald Hill Country Club, $872.75; WLPO, $306.95; Walnut Leader, $52.08; Sycamore News, $107.80; Star Courier, $579; Bureau Valley Chief, $56.84; Sheffield Bulletin, $36.40; Connie James, $40; Check Charge, $5.22; Postmaster, $62.29; Postmaster, $415.72; Ed Nielsen, $70; Volunteers for Burditt, $100; Northern Star, $76.70; Citizen Shopping News, $15; WKDI, $79.20; Rock Valley Review, $214.50; Prophetstown Echo, $43.80; Daily Gazette, $582.40, and Postmaster, $404.55.

Two accused of throwing firecrackers

Two Ashton youths were arrested by Lee County Sheriff's Deputies for disorderly conduct, following two separate incidents on Main Street in Ashton.

James M. Martinez, 19, Ashton, was arrested and charged after deputies saw him throw a firecracker into a crowd of people on Main Street.

Sometime later, Bradley Walker, 17, Ashton, was taken into custody after he yelled obscenities from a car as deputies were checking for curfew violators. He was also accused of throwing firecrackers and eggs at squad cars.

Both were placed under bond and will appear in court Nov. 14.

Correction

A news article printed in the Dixon Evening Telegraph Oct. 24 inadvertently stated Joey Barton, 17, 1620 W. Third St., was charged on two counts of aggravated battery after he allegedly attacked a juvenile girl at Lincoln School.

The article should have stated the incident occurred in a classroom at Dixon High School, Oct. 16.

The Telegraph regrets the error.

Dunseth was stopped on Hoyle Road near Harmon and later brought to the Law Enforcement Center.

The blaze started in a gas tank of the Roger H. Brown auto, Nachusa. Approximately 20 gallons of gasoline were lost in the fire.

Just what is medical 'shock'?

NEW YORK (AP) — Medical "shock," the condition into which former President Richard M. Nixon lapsed after his phlebitis operation, means a collapse of blood circulation.

A simple cut on the hand, or even getting a vaccination shot, can cause some people to go into mild shock. They become woozy or even faint.

Emotional states can affect blood circulation, which is one reason for showing pallor or feeling faint.

Nixon's postoperative shock may have been complicated by his reluctance to seek early treatment for his phlebitis, or vein condition, or his own emotional reaction to the Watergate scandal that led to his resignation, one physician says.

Small arteries, called arterioles, dilate, or expand, thereby losing ability to contract normally to push freshened blood to all parts of the body, including the heart and brain.

Shock can result from accidental injuries, excessive bleeding, excessive manipulation of organs during surgery, or operations on the vascular system. The venous, or vein system, is particularly sensitive to manipulation surgically. Nixon had a major vein clamped mostly shut.

Further, he apparently had a very extensive series of clots throughout much of his left leg, a pre-existing interference with venous blood return to the heart.

One physician, asked for an opinion about the Nixon case, said, "He was reported not to have been in very good physical condition the night before, and the operation was therefore delayed. But the operation was apparently deemed necessary to avoid life-threatening trouble if a major clot broke loose" and went from the leg to the lungs.

Treatment of Nixon's kind of shock usually involves giving massive blood transfusions. Normally, the human body has about five quarts of circulating blood. But if arteries relax, and don't push the flow along with normal pressure, more blood is needed to fill up the system so that weakened artery contractions can still do the job.

From seven to nine quarts of blood may be needed in the pipelines.

Certain drugs that make arterioles constrict to more normal size are also useful.

Candidates for the Lee County Board questioned

Voters in various districts of Lee County will vote to elect 14 members to the County Board out of 17 candidates.

There are contests in District 1, 3 and 4.

The Telegraph sent a list of questions to each candidate for the County Board, asking they be answered and returned.

Answers have been returned from 16 of the 17 candidates and are printed, along with their pictures, in the following pages in an attempt to better acquaint citizens with the candidates who seek to represent them on the Lee County Board.

Each candidate for the County Board was asked to answer the following questions.

Answers were returned by 16 of 17 candidates.

1. The chairman of the board be a full time 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., five-day a week basis as in some counties.

2. The chairman be given authority to establish joint purchasing, wherever possible.

3. The chairman, and only the chairman, be given authority to call committee meetings and then only when necessary.

4. The chairman be given the authority to attend all meetings relevant to Public Relations between cities and all other governmental bodies. Many of these cannot be attended by a part-time chairman.

5. The chairman be given the authority to be present to discuss problems with Lee County taxpayers.

6. The chairman be given the authority to pass judgement on problems that presently go to committees and presently wait 30-60 and even 90 days or more, as the case may be, for an answer and maybe never get out of committee.

7. The chairman be given authority to pursue contracts that have been let to expedite their conclusion without waiting months, or years, for completion.

8. The chairman be allowed authority to expedite requests from all the elected and appointed officials of the county in order to avoid them having to wait until board meeting day, which could be 30 days later to resolve their problems.

9. The chairman be allowed to communicate with all the employees of the County in any matter relative to their positions.

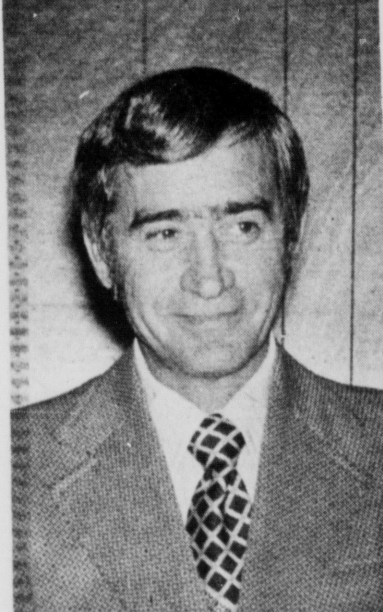

Do you favor, instead of giving the board chairman the foregoing powers suggested by Fraza, to hire a full-time administrative assistant for the board chairman?

Do you favor the suggested raise in the daily care rate at the Lee County Nursing Home?

Do you favor township being assessed for their residents who are patients in the Lee County Nursing Home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid?

Do you favor per diem pay for each board member being read at the regular meeting of the County Board?

District 1 candidates for the County Board

LOWELL BEGGS

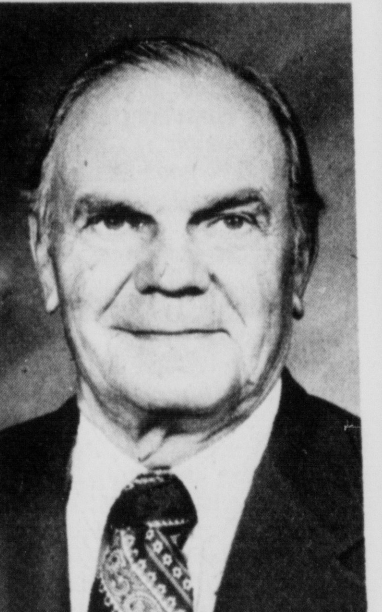

J. LESTER BULFER

DAVID CONSIDINE

DAVID GUSSE

ERNEST NORDEN

This district includes the following townships: Amboy, East Grove, Hamilton, Harmon, Marion, May, Nelson, Palmyra, South Dixon and Precinct 18 of Dixon Township. Four of the five candidates will be elected.

I feel the chairman of the County Board now has enough authority to discharge his duties.

Do you favor, instead of giving the board chairman the foregoing powers suggested by Fraza, to hire a full-time administrative assistant for the board chairman? Yes

Do you favor the suggested raise in the daily care rate at the Lee County Nursing Home? Yes

Do you favor township being assessed for their residents who are patients in the Lee County Nursing Home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid? No

Do you favor per diem pay for each board member being read at the regular meeting of the County Board? Yes

Lowell Beggs, member County Board from District 1, seeking re-election

I do not favor giving the board chairman the powers suggested.

Some areas would give him too much power and others are already his.

As to making the chairman a full-time position, I feel that anyone who seeks the position knows that it will be time-consuming.

If he does not have the time, he should not take the job.

The chairman can and should use his per diem pay as often as his duties to the board require.

For a board chairman to be one of the lowest-paid members of the board would indicate the lack of interest.

Yes, I favor the suggestion of raising the daily care rates at the nursing home; if in need it should be done.

Inflation has caused tremendous problems in all health care institutions.

I believe the nursing home should be on a sound basis before giving the administrator a raise in less than a year.

I would favor having the township pay 50 per cent of the needed money for their resident patients, with the county picking up the additional 50 per cent.

It is a sad commentary on our times, if we cannot help our elderly and disabled.

I believe per diem pay for board members should be read in open meetings.

J. Lester Bulfer, District 1 board member seeking re-election

I feel that it is important to have a full-time chairman of the board because county government is the biggest business in the county.

I favor joint purchasing whenever possible.

I do not favor the chairman having authority to call committee meetings.

I favor giving the chairman authority to attend all meetings relevant to public relations between cities and all other governmental bodies.

I favor giving the chairman the authority to be present to discuss problems with Lee County taxpayers.

I do not favor the chairman be given the authority to pass judgment on problems that presently go to committees and presently wait 30 to 60 and even 90 days or more for an answer and maybe never get out of committee because the government way of solving problems is by committee work.

I favor the chairman be given authority to pursue contracts that have been let to expedite their conclusion without waiting months or years to be completed because it should be the duty of the chairman and the whole County Board.

I do not favor the chairman being allowed authority to expedite requests from all the elected and appointed officials of the county in order to avoid them having to wait until board meeting days, which could be 30 days later, to resolve their problems.

I do favor the chairman being allowed to communicate with all employees of the county in any matter relative to their positions.

I do not favor hiring a full-time administrative assistant for the board chairman because I think that those duties should be vested in the chairman because he is an elected official and we do not need an administrative assistant, which is expensive and would be an appointed rather than elected position.

I believe the nursing home can operate efficiently and effectively under the current rates.

I favor townships being assessed for their residents who are patients in the Lee County Nursing Home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

I do not favor reading each board member's per diem pay at regular meetings because I feel the present practice of the Executive and Claims Committee approving the per diem amounts applied for to be an adequate way to insure no "double dipping" by any county board members.

David D. Considine, member from District 1, seeking re-election

The county board chairman probably should have more powers to make decisions on his own but only after consulting with the appropriate committee.

I would be against the hiring of a full-time administrative assistant for the board chairman unless it could be shown that it would be more efficient to use tax money for this purpose.

I would be in favor of increasing the daily rate charged patients at the Lee County Nursing Home but not until other ways of trying to overcome the deficit have been tried.

I do not favor assessing townships for the difference in the cost for patients on state aid.

Per diem should be read at board meetings.

District 2 County Board candidates

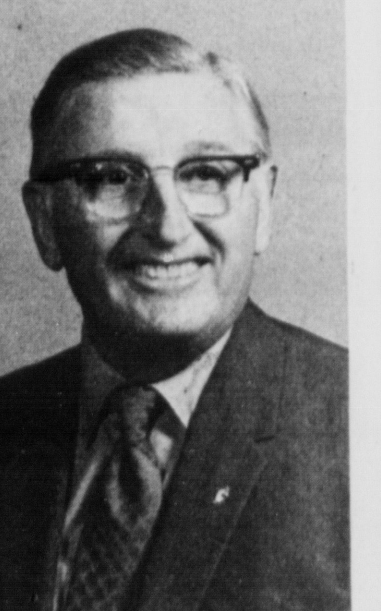

BLAINE ALLEN

WARREN FABER

FRANCIS J. EGE

IRVIN KOCH

This district includes the following townships: Alton, Ashton, Bradford, Brooklyn, China, Lee Center, Nachusa, Reynolds, Sublette, Viola, Willow Creek, Wyoming. Four candidates are running for four seats.

Yes

Blaine Allen, member County Board from District 2, seeking re-election

More District 2 candidates

I oppose a full time County Board chairman.

We need joint purchasing across the board, but I disagree that this should be done by the chairman or any one person.

I would prefer a three-board member committee meeting once a month on regular board meeting day to do this job.

I agree that only the chairman should call committee meetings. All committees are committees of the chairman and thus he should exercise some control over them.

The chairman needs no authority to attend meetings with other groups. The chairman has an obligation to see that his office is represented at all kinds of functions either by himself or a special appointed representative.

The chairman needs no authority to talk with taxpayers; he has an obligation to do this.

We do not need a one man problem solver. The committees serve at the pleasure of the chairman and if they are not functioning it is the chairman's responsibility to correct it.

The chairman doesn't need authority to pursue contracts; he has an obligation to do so and report his findings to the board.

Elected and appointed officials must make every effort to anticipate requests and needs so that they can be handled at board meeting.

The chairman has an obligation to be a liaison between the employers and the board.

I am opposed to a full-time administrator. One look at the nursing home problem should make everyone opposed to this. The system we have can work if the members accept their responsibilities and are properly led.

The nursing home rates must be raised to cover cost if it be $15, $22, or $25.

I favor the township paying $2.50 per day for all patients from the township on state aid in any nursing home. To single out one facility for this pay and not consider the patients in other homes is wrong.

I favor per diem read at board meeting but you must do more. I favor no pay for any meeting until such time as an oral report is given to the board and a copy of written minutes of committee meetings made available and a part of board meeting minutes.

Warren Faber, member, County Board, District 1, seeking re-election

I appreciate this opportunity to make a few comments in regards to your inquiry on my particular stand or thoughts pertaining to certain issues that have or will confront the Lee County Board.

Number 1: In no way would I be in favor of the chairman of the board be given unlimited authority and powers, because I feel this would make the rest of the members of the board mere puppets and only representatives in name only.

Also I would be against hiring a full-time administrative assistant for the board chairman, because this could lead to an overlapping of duties, or two people trying to do what one of them should be doing.

Furthermore, the cost could be prohibitive, possibly an annual salary of $12,000 to $15,000.

I would like to suggest that the board chairman set up regular office hours, possibly one day a week and on an evening for board members as well as the general public, to discuss business or express their views or register any complaints.

Another thing I feel that all members of the board should realize more fully the importance of the job that they have been elected to do and the board chairman to utilize his leadership to stress the importance to all committees not to dilly dally in their deliberations.

I also think that possibly a reduction in the membership makeup of the board might make for a more effective, efficient and economical form of County Government.

Number 2: I have always seriously doubted whether the county should be in the Nursing Home business. There seems to be no end to problems confronting the operation. I would suggest the strict adherence to the budget be enforced and the daily care rate be increased to a comparable rate to that of independent operators to insure the best care for the elderly.

Number 3: I do not feel townships should be assessed for their residents who are in the Lee County Nursing Home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid, because of limited funds and because of the many other financial obligations imposed on them.

Number 4: I think it should be a must that per diem pay for each board member be read at each regular meeting of the County Board. Also that each committee utilize their time to the fullest on regular meeting days to conduct their particular meetings, even if it means coming earlier or staying later. I know that the importance and urgency of certain matters would entail having them at other times of the month, but these should be kept to a minimum.

Francis J. "Fran" Ege, candidate for County Board from District 1

Irvin Koch, a long-time board member from this district, did not return the questionnaire.

TV show on new voting machines

Beginning at 7:30 p.m. this evening, Channel Seven will be airing a half-hour video-taped program on the use of the new voting machines in the Dixon precincts.

John Stouffer, Lee County Clerk, will demonstrate the use of the machines and go through a flip chart on a step-by-step basis, showing the viewer exactly how to use the video-voter.

The telecast will be repeated approximately 24 times from Thursday, Oct. 31, to Monday, Nov. 4, to give all voters an opportunity to view the presentation.

The Channel Seven airing schedule is as follows: Thursday, 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday, 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Sunday, 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Monday, 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Attend Peoria session for township officials

AMBOY — Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kerchner spent Monday and Tuesday attending the 65th annual convention of Illinois Association of Township Officials held in the Hilton Hotel, Peoria.

Some of the outstanding speakers included Carol Langdon, on Federal Revenue Sharing; Robert Henrich, Department of Public Aid; and Col. Joe Parisi, editor from Lansing, Mich., a past president of the National Association of Township officials.

Candidates for the County Board from District 3

This district includes all the Dixon Township precincts south of the Rock River, except Precinct 18.

I am not in favor of having a full-time county board chairman.

The Purchasing Committee should establish joint purchasing procedures.

It would be impractical without a full-time chairman and I am opposed to a full-time chairman, for him and committee chairmen to be given authority to call committee meetings.

The board chairman is an "ipso facto" member of all County Board committees.

The board chairman already has, as well as all members of the board, the right to discuss taxpayers' problems.

The chairman has the authority to pass judgment on problems that presently go to committees if the chairman's leadership is exercised.

The chairman already has the implicated power of office to pursue contracts to expedite their conclusion.

It would be good for the board chairman to expedite requests from elected and appointed officials to speed up any unfinished action, but it is not a question of authority, it is inherent in his office.

Public relationship is good, however, department heads should be respected or removed, I see abuses in the request of the chairman to communicate with all employees of the county in any matter to their positions.

I would like a discussion concerning an administrative assistant.

I do not favor raising the daily care rate at the Lee County Nursing Home.

I do not favor townships being assessed for their residents who are patients in the county nursing home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

I do favor per diem pay for each board member being read at the regular meeting of the board.

Edward J. Conroy, board member from District 3, seeking re-election

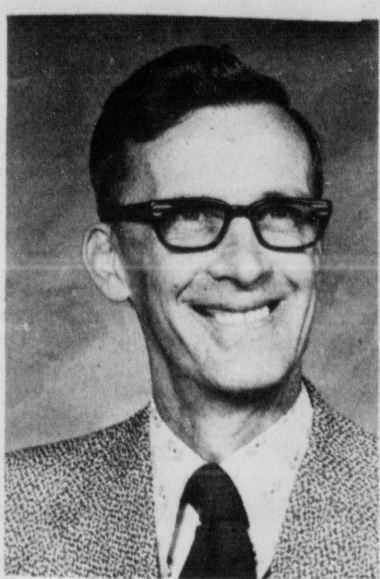

In answer to your request of Oct. 16, I would like to reply to your questions.

I do think the Lee County Board should have a full-time chairman.

I do not favor the suggested raise in the daily care rate at

EDWARD CONROY

ROBERT FICHTER

PAUL HAMERSMITH

WINSTON McREYNOLDS

the Lee County Nursing Home.

I do favor the townships being assessed for their residents who are patients at the Lee County Nursing Home whose care is paid for by the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

I see no reason to object to the reading of per diem pay for each board member at the regular meetings.

This must be done without a tax increase.

And since I am only a possible board member, I would like to reserve the right to change my mind, if I am seated and after I receive more information on the matter.

Since I have not served on the Lee County Board before, I may not have a full understanding of the problems involved in these four questions. If I am elected, after I have served for a time and have seen how the system really works, I may want to change some of the opinions I now have.

(1) Considering the large amounts of money spent by the County Board, there seems to be a need for tightening up Board business procedures.

In general, I think I would favor giving Mr. Fraza most of the authority he asks.

However, I do not think it needs to be on a daily 8 to 5 basis, or with the help of an outside paid administrative assistant.

Perhaps a clerk or secretary is needed in his office, but I (See next page) think matters of policy should still be decided by the Board, its committee, and its chairman.

(2) The Lee County Nursing Home needs to be kept on a paying basis, but I would hope it could be through economies rather than raising rates.

It would seem fair that those who are paying for care should pay rates comparable to the private nursing homes in the area, or more, if the care, food, therapy, etc., are better at the County Home than at the private homes.

(3) For public-aid patients, the Lee County Nursing Home rates are higher than the Illinois Department of Public Aid pays, by $1,111 per patient per year.

I think the County and townships should work out some fair arrangement on picking up this bill. Each township's share should be proportionate to the funds it has available for this purpose as well as to the number of patients it has.

I think the greatest effort should be made toward reducing the amount of this difference, by economy.

(4) I favor a per diem pay sheet being available at regular meetings of the Board. I think public business should be open and the public kept fully informed of meetings held and business transacted.

Paul Hamersmith, candidate for County Board from District 3

I would favor giving the board chairman powers necessary for efficient management of county government to make it more responsive to the needs of the people.

I do not think that under our present system of government, the board could hire an administrative assistant for the chairman. I question the legality of it.

I do not favor the suggested raise in the daily care rate at the Lee County Nursing Home.

If there is a need, I feel the township should be assessed.

I have no objections to the reading of per diem pay at regular board meetings.

Winston McReynolds, District 3 Board member seeking re-election

Four candidates for District 4 seat on the Board

GRACE BALSER

This district includes all Dixon Township precincts north of the Rock River. Four candidates are running for three seats from this area.

"The Chairman of the Board be a full time 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., 5 day a week basis as in some counties."

I believe every Board Chairman should be as "full time" as is required, arranging his personal schedule so as not to conflict with demands as the County Board Chairman. . . . I am flexible in my thinking about salary for this position. If changing the present policy, $500 per year plus $500 for expenses, to that of per diem allowance plus mileage would be more acceptable, I would be agreeable to the change.

"The Chairman be given authority to establish joint purchasing, wherever possible."

It is my view that purchasing policy proposals may be submitted by the Board Chairman, with the final decision for this change of procedure to be made by the members of the County Board. An evaluation of La Salle County's Central Purchasing Policy might be investigated.

"The Chairman, and only the Chairman, be given authority to call committee meetings and then only when necessary."

At the present time the operation of Lee County Government is based on the "committee system." Under this system the Board Chairman, elected by County Board members, determines the necessary committees and then selects a chairman for each committee along with committee members. So, unless or until, this system would be abolished by County Board action, the implementation of your recommendation could not be accomplished.

"The Chairman be given authority to attend all meetings relevant to Public Relations between cities and all other governmental bodies. Many of these cannot be attended by a part-time chairman."

Please refer to my comments to the first question . . . whenever the interests of Lee County are involved, of course the Board Chairman is already expected to attend such meetings. "The Chairman be given the authority to be present to discuss problems with Lee County taxpayers."

The County Board Chairman, as any County Board member, has the responsibility at all times answering to the taxpayers of Lee County.

"The Chairman be given the authority to pass judgment on problems that presently go to committees and presently wait 30-60 and even 90 days or more, as the case may be, for an answer, and maybe never get out of committee."

Repeating my comments to the third question . . . under the present "committee system," I cannot see the adoption of this. A Board Chairman should at all times be aware of the progress of committee work, and this can be accomplished by attending the meetings of the committees. The clerk, at the request of the Board Chairman, will notify the County Board Chairman of each committee meeting.

PHILIP SLAGLE

"The Chairman be given authority to pursue contracts that have been let to expedite their conclusion without waiting months, or years for completion."

This is answered in my comments to the sixth question.

"The Chairman be allowed authority to expedite requests from all the elected and appointed officials of the county in order to avoid them having to wait until Board Meeting day, which could be 30 days later, to resolve their problems."

I cannot see the need for this unless the "committee system" form of County Government is abandoned. With monthly County Board meetings there is no such urgency. The County Board chairman, at his discretion, may call a special County Board meeting.

"The Chairman be allowed to communicate with all the employees of the county in any matter relative to their positions."

It is presently the responsibility of the County Board Chairman to be knowledgeable of the problems of all county employees.

Mr. Frazz, commenting on paragraph No. 8 of your letter . . . "at times a meeting is called, but a quorum does not appear, therefore no official action can be taken and the members present collect per diem."

In my years as a County Board member I have never known of per diem being paid without a quorum of the committee present for the meeting.

Your suggestion that County Board members be informed in advance of the agenda for the Board Meeting is excellent, however this cannot be fully accomplished as many times a request to appear before the County Board is received by the County Clerk on the day of the County Board meeting.

I believe more efficient County Government could be accomplished. (See next page) companied with a smaller County Board. At the time of re-organization of the present County Board in 1972 I strongly advocated and voted to cut the County Board membership to about 10 members, however the membership will remain as is until 1980 or until another official census is taken.

"Raise the daily care rate to $22 per day."

"Individual townships should pay the difference between what the private pay patients and the Illinois Department of Public Aid reimburses the county for care of the people in the Lee County Nursing Home from their townships."

Since the voters of Lee County passed the referendum for the Lee County Nursing Home, and because the State of Illinois has not yet lived up to their promise of paying their fair share of the costs for all Illinois residents, a promise made prior to the building program, I cannot believe that any citizen of the county would object to such a small levy. Information recently received from the Federal Government states it is mandatory that, in our case, the State of Illinois Department of Public Aid, pay their share of the costs for Public Aid residents, before 1975.

In view of that ruling, the small levy for the taxpayer would exist for not more than two years, and I would favor the continued subsidy from the County General Fund.

I issue regarding reading per diem pay for County Board members at the regular meeting of the Board.

I find no quarrel with reading the per diem at the monthly meetings. Your remarks that "double dipping" does take place in other counties and could exist in Lee County lead me to believe that with the reading of the per diem of each member this situation could be avoided.

Grace P. Balser, member County Board from District 4, seeking re-election

In reply to questions presented in your letter of Oct. 16, I would first like to qualify my answers by stating they are my views after participating as a new member of the present term of the board and a new member of the finance committee for the past two years plus, which included three annual budget sessions.

First, I do not favor giving the board chairman the powers suggested by Mr. Fraza nor the hiring of an administrative assistant. The county is presently operating under the committee system and while it has obvious defects, it also has benefits and protective features for the public. Until such time as the public sees fit to change the form of county government I would favor trying to improve the present system and a closer scrutiny of all committee work by the chairman and board members.

Second, the present county nursing home was sold to the people of Lee County under the guise of being self supporting. I believe a raise in rates should be coupled with a reduction of those expenses now appearing out of proportion for a facility of this nature and bring it closer to a break-even. This break-even should include the $82,000 rent left out of the revised budget of expense presented in your paper Oct. 23, an example of fiscal chicanery on the part of the administration and committee that should not be accepted by the public. Even if operating on a break-even of income and expense, the operation is substantially subsidized by virtue of not paying taxes or providing depreciation and by items of expense carried in other county accounts.

Third, whatever the degree of success or failure of the foregoing my answer to question three would have to be I believe the assessment of cost for those needing public aid is beyond the township level and must be spread over a larger segment of the population.

Finally, on reading of per diem amounts, I would have no objection to such reading, but would question how much effect it would have or even if it would produce a desirable effect. At the present time I believe we can all see the matter needs attention to correct the abuses. Overall the county has a large and generally good representation for a cost hardly exceeding the cost of one qualified administrator. The people on the board making up the committees are for the most part sincere and hard working representatives trying to do a good job.

Thank you for your questions, and my apologies for a lengthy reply. I know you and your readers realize each of the items in question can produce lengthy debate and discussion. I would be glad to discuss any of them in detail with anyone wishing to contact me.

James P. Green, District 4

Voter apathy may have serious effects on Illinois 24th District Congressional race

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP) — A lot of 24th Congressional district voters would just as soon not have to choose either Val Oshel or Paul Simon for the U.S. House. And both men fear they won't.

Numbered by political scandal, the voters show signs of apathy. Besides, they were perfectly happy with the man they had on the Hill, Rep. Kenneth Gray.

"I would like to see committee meetings called when necessary, with the approval of committee chairman."

The board chairman should have the authority to pursue contracts and negotiation with the committee chairman to expedite time. I also believe that a time limit should be set on all contracts to be let, in order to save time and most probably money.

I would like to see public disclosure of all payments made to board members and payments should be made per day, not per meeting.

Not being familiar with the nursing home other than what I see in the newspaper, I fear about the community. I hear that $22 per day would not be out of line.

I am opposed to the townships being assessed until all possible avenues have been exhausted to trim the budget of the nursing home which, by all accounts, seems to be high.

I feel the board chairman, committee chairman and other concerned county officials should hold public accountability sessions at least twice a year in which full disclosure of all county activities would be open to the public and the public could at this time present its problems to the proper officials.

Thank you for the opportunity to answer your questions.

Philip E. Slagle, candidate for the County Board from District 4

I personally favor the hiring of a full-time administrative assistant for the Board Chairman.

This assistant would be a full-time person who, with board approval, would work closely with all department heads to help in any way he could to expedite all matters pertaining to their respective offices.

I believe the board should consider the establishment of a joint purchasing policy that could possibly save the taxpayers a considerable amount of money over a period of years.

Our county now operates under the "committee system." I would have to say "no" to the chairman being given authority over committees.

As far as I know the Board Chairman has always had the authority to attend all meetings relevant to public relations between all governmental bodies. He needs no authority to discuss any problem with any taxpayer of Lee County. I hope he communicates with all county employees on any and all matters they wish to discuss with him.

I believe expediting contracts and elected and appointed officials' problems would fall under the jurisdiction of the full-time administrative assistant's office. Of course, this would have to be approved and implemented by the full board. I would like to thank Mr. Fraza for his thought-provoking questions. I believe he has made some valid suggestions to help improve the function of County Government. I think they should be discussed and explored further.

Having never been a member of the nursing home committee I must admit, I rely heavily upon that committee's recommendations. If they convince me that the budget has been pared down to the bone, without sacrificing any necessities of the residents, I would favor a slight raise in the daily care rate. As Mr. Dumphy has stated, it all boils down to our admissions policy. If we continue to accept all residents on a first-come first-served basis, regardless of their ability to pay, we will probably run a deficit at the nursing home. From a personal point of view I would be willing to accept a small levy if we could continue with the very humanitarian type of admissions policy we now have.

I would like all per diem pay for each board member be reviewed at each regular board meeting. I would also like the date and length of time it took to conduct the meeting.

I believe this would give the taxpayers of Lee County a much better understanding of how the committee form of government works. When I ran for the County Board a little over two years ago I was in favor of the Home Rule type of County Government. I still favor a much smaller sized board. I am not sure Home Rule is the answer but as soon as possible I hope the people of Lee County will reduce the size of the board.

Ray Wegner, member County Board from District 4, seeking re-election

Southern Illinois counties he represents. Gray called that "bringing home the bacon." With the loss of his seniority, the district's future isn't nearly as exciting.

Simon, a Carbondale Democrat and former lieutenant governor, illustrated the apathy problem last week campaigning in Centralia. Striding through the business district shaking hands he spotted the local Oshel headquarters, bolted in and introduced himself to two startled campaign workers, saying: "Even though I don't happen to agree with you I'm happy to see you're participating."

Oshel, a Harrisburg Republican and former state civil defense director, and Simon both are wary of a small turnout though it seems Oshel may have the most to fear.

In the spring primary Simon turned out more than 14,000 more Democrats by himself than the three Republican contenders combined. His vote total was more than twice as large as Oshel's and Oshel had a turnout even smaller than the losing Democrat. Nearly 70,000 Democrats cast ballots, compared with fewer than 33,000 Republicans in what is supposed to be a Republican district despite Gray.

"But primaries aren't any indication," Simon says. Nearly everyone but Oshel and his supporters—but not even all of them—concede Simon looks like the leader. And Simon says his polls confirm it. "But I think the reality is that you can't believe polls. You've got to get out and work hard." He is. He's visited every town in the district that's on the map and some that aren't.

Three reasons why Simon is working hard: he didn't become a resident of the 24th until Gray's retirement announcement, overconfidence cost him the 1972 Democratic gubernatorial nomination and Oshel is the only man ever to come close to beating Gray.

Oshel has scored Simon for carpetbagging and for his stands on some issues that smack of too much liberalism for the conservative majority.

Simon calls that negative campaigning, points out his former home was just outside the district boundary and complains Oshel won't talk issues—economics, ethics, agriculture and 10 more Simon covered in a series of position papers. Oshel says, "I've been talking about the positive issues that pertain to Southern Illinois long before Paul Simon moved down here."

Oshel can't help but recall that the experts blamed his loss to Gray in 1970 on over emphasis of issues, specifically the national economy.

Still, Oshel lost by only 16,000 votes of the total 190,000 cast.

Gray ran unopposed in 1972 because of his popularity. No Republican wanted to take him on even though the district has voted for only one Democratic presidential nominee since Truman.

One voter admonished Simon as he campaigned one August day in Thompsonville. "All we want from you, Paul, is another Kenney Gray... he always kept his word."

Both Oshel and Simon solemnly pledge to continue Gray's record of attention to district needs.

Perhaps an indication of the security of Simon's lead is that Gray has rarely appeared with him.

Local economies are the overriding campaign issue. Both men desire to be themselves as fiscal conservatives anxious to obtain federal dollars for district development, especially for construction of a proposed coal gasification plant to exploit the vast but dirty Southern Illinois reserves. Aside for the carpetbagging, Oshel tried to expose Simon on gun control and abortion but the Democrat fessed both issues.

And he countered with what seems to be the most novel notion to emerge from the campaign: an experimental program of federally guaranteed jobs in two impoverished counties. Simon says the emphasis would be on private industry with public works to fall back on.

Football scramble continues

BLOOMINGTON— The scrambling for berths in each of the five classes of the first-ever Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Football Playoff Series reaches a climax this final weekend of the regular season with a total of 138 teams still having a chance to qualify as a conference champion or an "At Large" entrant.

The winners of each of the 65 football conferences advance to Preliminary (First-round) games in each of the five 16-team brackets Wednesday, Nov. 6. Thirteen conferences are assigned to each class. In addition, three "At Large" teams will be selected from the ranks of independents, conference co-champions not selected to represent their conference, and conference runners-up in each class to fill the berths. Preliminary (First-Round) games will be played at 2 p.m. Nov. 6 unless the two competing teams agree to a 7 p.m. kickoff. Winners advance to the Quarterfinals Saturday, Nov. 9 at 1:30 p.m. The semifinal games will be played Saturday, Nov. 16 at 1:30 p.m. In each of the first three rounds, one of the two competing schools will serve as host site for the game.

Championship games in each of the five classes will be played the weekend of Nov. 22-23 on the artificial turf of Hancock Stadium on the campus of Illinois State University, Normal. The time schedule will be: Friday, Nov. 22—9:30 a.m. Class 1A, noon Class 2A, 2:30 p.m. Class 3A, Saturday, Nov. 23—11 a.m. Class 4A, and 1:30 p.m. Class 5A.

All five championship games are scheduled to be televised in the Chicago land Area by WGN-TV, Chicago (Channel 9). In addition, cable television systems throughout the state with a WGN-TV outlet will be able to pick up the telecast.

Pairings for each of the classes will be drawn this weekend. A total of 33 schools are still in the running for Class 1A conference championships or the "At Large" berths. In Class 2A there are 22 schools, 30 in Class 3A, 25 in Class 4A and 28 in Class 5A.

Several dramatic season finale showdowns are on tap this weekend. In Class 5A, perennial power Evanston travels to Oak Park-River Forest Saturday afternoon with the Suburban League title on the line. In the Des Plaines Valley, unbeaten Franklin Park (East Leyden) meets Villa Park (Willowbrook) with the winner moving into a position of being the conference selection. Elmhurst (York), which sidelined Hinsdale (Central) last weekend, could claim the West Suburban crown Saturday with a win over once-beaten Glen Ellyn (Glenbard West).

Powerhouses Peoria (H.S.) unbeaten in eight starts, and traditional rival Peoria (Manual) square off at 2 p.m. Saturday in the fight for the Mid State Nine championship, highlighting Class 4A action. Meanwhile, independent Granite City (North), at 7-1, must beat Big 12 champion Mattoon at Mattoon Friday night to have a chance to be considered for an "At Large" berth, while the winner of the battle of Big 9 foes Belvidere and Rockford (Boylan Catholic) Friday night may gain an "At Large" berth.

In Class 3A, Friday night's contest between unbeaten Morton and once-beaten Washington should decide the Heart of Illinois title, while in the Northeast league playoff game, Lisle and Dwight will square off to determine that representative. Unbeaten West Chicago (8-0) battles once-beaten Plainfield in a fight for the Little Seven crown Friday night. Unbeaten Rockton (Hononegah) must get past once-beaten Marango Friday night for the Shark title.

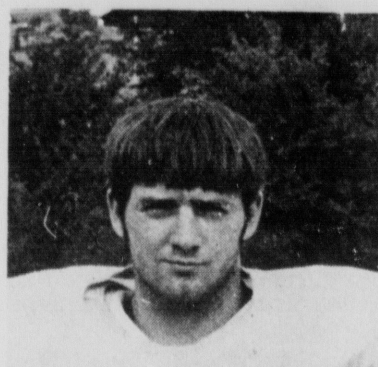

Sherrard, unbeaten in eight games, plays Taylor Ridge (Rockridge) for the Corn Belt title in Class 2A Friday night. In the Sangamon Valley, unbeaten LeRoy, which has allowed only eight points in eight games, must beat Mahomet-Seymour to claim the title. Eldorado and Metropolis, both unbeaten (5-0) in the league, meet Friday night to decide the Southern Illinois championship.

In the Class 1A Bi-County, Stronghurst (Southern) carries its unbeaten league record into its Friday date with once-beaten Biggsville (Union). Flanagan and Gridley meet to decide the Midstate-Mid Central berth Friday.

Another noteworthy game will be the Friday battle between Waukega (Class 2A) champion Watseka (8-0) and Class 3A Kankakee Valley winner Momence (8-0).

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS in the Dixon High School football team loss to Kewanee last Friday were Reece Ashford as Player of the Week, and Ron Murray as Line-man. Ashford gained 61 yards in 16 carries while Murray earned his honor for outstanding blocking.

Hunter wins AL Cy Young

By NOEL YANCEY
Associated Press Writer
RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Being selected as the top pitcher in the American League by winning the Cy Young Award hasn't eliminated Catfish Hunter's troubles with his boss, Oakland A's owner Charles O. Finley.

Hunter insisted in a telephone interview from his home in Hertford, N.C., after his Cy Young Award selection that Finley "still owes me $50,000 on this year's contract."

Asked about this and the possibility he might claim free agent status, Hunter said that and the salary matter would be discussed at a meeting between his attorneys, Marvin Miller of the Players Association and Bowie Kuhn, commissioner of baseball.

"They're going to decide what's going to happen on that," Hunter said.

When Finley was asked about the dispute, he declined comment. "Why ruin a great day for Hunter," he said. Finley said he was "very proud and happy" for Hunter whom he described as "one of the finest gentlemen in the game."

The 28-year-old North Carolinian appeared mildly surprised at his winning the Cy Young Award over Ferguson Jenkins of the Texas Rangers, who received 75 points from a 24-member panel of the Baseball Writers Association of America to 90 for Hunter.

Hunter said he learned of his selection Wednesday afternoon when his wife told him after he returned from a fruitless deer hunt.

"I thought Ferguson Jenkins might get it instead of me," Hunter said. He pointed out that both of them had 25 victories last season and that Oakland had won the World Series.

"His team was not as good; so he had to pitch a little better, maybe," Hunter said.

Hunter agreed that the Cy Young Award was the greatest honor to come to him during

Air attack is successful for winners in WFL action

In tonight's nationally-televised game, Portland travels to Shreveport.

The Charlotte Hornets were No. 1 in the league in defending against the pass. But Southern California has the top passer. Rookie quarterback Tony Adams rattled the Hornet's defensive secondary with 13 completions out of 24 attempts for 234 yards.

Adams, who has cranked up the arm and thrown 43 times in a game, connected with running back James McAllister in the first period to highlight the Sun's first scoring drive. Then, with 22 seconds left in the opening half, Adams found wide receiver Dave Williams in the end zone on the scoring end of a 22-yard pass.

Adams scored two touchdowns himself, preferring to run it in from the one on both occasions.

At Birmingham, Ala., the Americans' Al Jenkins caught five passes for 168 yards to pace the victory over Florida. With the score knotted at 7-7 in the second period, Jenkins teamed up with quarterback Matthew Reed for an 80-yard bomb.

Birmingham increased its advantage to 23-7 before the Blazers scored their final 11 points.

Jim "King" Corcoran collaborated with Willie Franklin on a 90-yard pass play in the final two minutes to set up Philadelphia's winning score.

Corcoran, never one afraid of putting the ball into the air, completed 20 of 34 passes for 349 yards as the Bell jumped off to an early 15-0 lead. But Chicago went ahead before Corcoran's aerial attack gave the Bell a big boost towards a playoff berth.

John Huarte passed for three touchdowns in pacing Memphis to its victory over the Hawaiians before a crowd of 20,544 in Honolulu — the largest of the season for Hawaii.

Huarte threw touchdown passes of 27 and 37 yards to Gary Shirk and also hit Roger Wallace with a 51-yard toss as the Southmen posted their 15th victory in 18 games, the best record in the WFL.

Most of the scoring was jammed into the first half as Memphis grabbed a 25-20 lead at halftime. Hawaii cut it to 25-23 on a 20-yard field goal by R.A. Coppedge in the third period. But then Huarte connected with Shirk for 37 yards early in the fourth quarter.

Hawaii made two of its points

by scoring a safety in the second quarter.

Seattle is also selected

NFL picks Tampa

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom McCloskey ended a six-year wait Wednesday when he was awarded the new Tampa franchise in the National Football League.

McCloskey was picked because of his close ties with Tampa, NFL Commissioner Peter Rozelle said. Yet, Tampa sports figures registered surprise that the expansion franchise went to an out-of-towner.

The league owners will award the Seattle franchise within the next month, Rozelle said, and both teams will begin play in the 1976 season.

The commissioner said the league will expand again, taking in two more teams, conceivably as early as 1976 but probably later.

"We feel McCloskey will make a very fine owner," Rozelle said.

McCloskey, the son of a former ambassador to Ireland and Democratic Party treasurer, Matthew H. McCloskey, tried to buy the Philadelphia Eagles when their then-owner, Jerry Wolman, went bankrupt. He failed when Leonard Tose purchased the team.

Rozelle said McCloskey, who is paying $16 million for the franchise, could be the sole owner of the club, but would prefer to have minority stockholders from Tampa.

In making the announcement of McCloskey's selection Wednesday, Rozelle referred repeatedly to McCloskey's ties with Tampa.

"His family ran the shipyard there and he worked at the shipyard," the commissioner said. "He has a home in Tampa and owns a business there."

His sister went to the University of Tampa ..."

Owner and president of McCloskey & Co., one of the nation's largest builders and real estate developers, McCloskey, 49, was one of the founders of Cloverly, the Philadelphia-based group which sponsored Joe Frazier's climb to the world heavyweight championship. He also is the owner of the Philadelphia Atoos of the North American Soccer League.

McCloskey was chosen by the 26 NFL owners over two other groups attempting to obtain the Tampa franchise.

Although surprised about McCloskey's selection, Tampa civic leaders immediately backed the new owner.

Among the cities in the running for the two additional NFL franchises are Phoenix, Ariz.; Birmingham, Ala.; Memphis, Tenn., and Honolulu, Hawaii. But Rozelle said other cities and areas would be included in the owners' search.
